

Rousseau
Gautrin
Engineering to service

BRASSERIE LICORNE

in order to design and carry out the implementation of a brewery to produce new products Boris brand division.

Mandate:

- Study the need for the establishment of a brewery
- Preparation of the process diagram (P&ID)
- Search facilities. (Tanks, bottling, water boiler, chiller, etc.)
- Assessment of costs of equipment and installation of the brewery
- Modifications and add on to the building chosen for the implementation of the brewery
- Supervision and coordination of the construction site
- Application for permit and approval required for the City of St-Hyacinthe and MDDEP
- Analysis of control and automation needs of the brewery
- Start up of the factory
- Technical training for equipment and bottling process

Calculations:

- Establishing energy needs for adequate function of all systems
- Determine heat exchange systems needed
- Verification of vapor and cold water requirement for all equipments and validation capacity needed for utilities (boiler and cooler)

The firm Rousseau-Gautrin Inc. has been mandated by Brasserie Licorne (Quebec), a subsidiary of Brasserie Licorne (France), distributor and producer of coolers and beer for Boris brand here in Quebec, in order to design and carry out the implementation of a brewery to produce Boris brand products located in the municipality of St-Hyacinthe.